Representative of The Interim Transitional National Council of Libya
Washington, DC

Re: Engagement of Patton Boggs LLP

Dear Ambassador Ali Aujali:

By your countersignature on this letter, you have agreed that the Interim Transitional National Council of Libya (the "Council"), based in Benghazi, Libya, has retained Patton Boggs LLP to represent it in connection with providing advice on legal issues, assisting with the effort to gain recognition for the Council as the legitimate government of the sovereign nation of Libya, and assisting with the effort to make funds of the Gaddafi regime that have been frozen in the U.S. available for use by the Council, for the benefit of the people of Libya. We look forward to working with you on this engagement.

I will be primarily responsible for overseeing the work done on behalf of the Council and will supervise the lawyers and other professionals who may work on this project. Other partners, associates, staff attorneys, legal assistants, specialists and/or in-house consultants will assist in the matter.

We understand that at this time the Council may not have sufficient funds to pay our fees for these important services. We will charge the Council on an hourly basis for our work, according to our customary hourly billable rates. We agree that during this engagement our fees will not exceed $50,000 for any month. Patton Boggs may take on additional legal issues as necessary for the Council without exceeding the $50,000 cap per month, unless agreed upon by both parties. We will keep track of our fees and costs and provide them to you on a monthly basis. However, we will not seek payment for these fees and costs until the Council obtains sufficient funds to pay them. The Council agrees by its authorized signatory below to pay all accrued fees and expenses of Patton Boggs immediately upon receiving legal title or authorization to any assets that give it sufficient ability to pay our fees in the United States. We will provide you with a work plan and budget for the work to be performed under this engagement, which we will review with you regularly.
